REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Dreher High School celebrated seventy-five years of excellence in education during the 2013-2014 year. We were honored to be on Newsweek magazine's list of "Top American High Schools" and we were awarded a grade of "A" on the federal ESAA report card. Our school was named as a Palmetto Gold Award winner by the SCDOE and earned an absolute rating of "Excellent." The class of 2014 boasted five National Merit Semi-finalists, one National Achievement Finalist, three National Commended Scholars and our first Gates Millennium Scholar. The senior class included at least seventeen Palmetto Fellows, a South Carolina Teaching Fellow, a Rotary Scholar, a James F. Byrnes Scholar and multiple AP and Life Scholars. Class members were selected to study in a variety of fields including medical and legal studies, biochemistry, engineering, teacher education, the arts, NASCAR training, military preparation, culinary arts and modeling. As a HSTW school, our academic programs accommodated the diverse needs of our students. Our Advanced Placement/Honors Academy provided an extremely rigorous program of studies where students earned credits in as many as thirteen collegiate level courses. The expansion of Project Lead the Way established strong engineering and robotics studies. Our partnership with Heyward Career Center enabled students to earn certification in a variety of career fields. Support for students who struggle helped Dreher achieve a graduation rate of 84.1% in 2013. Among the supports were double-blocking Algebra I and freshman English courses, Academic Literacy and Read 180 instruction, correlated electives, a full-time tutor, afterschool programs, the opening of the "A-School" for credit recovery, and virtual instruction. The Fine Arts Academy offered multiple-year opportunities to study visual arts, band, chorus, drama, dance, orchestra, piano, guitar and world music. Among the highlights were sold-out performances of Grease and Fractured Fairy Tales. Recognized for their talents were twelve ACDA State Chorus members, twenty-seven District Honors Chorus members, two All-State Jazz Band members, two Region Band members, four All-State Orchestra members and seven Region Honors Orchestra members. A guitarist earned one of two chairs in the All-State Jazz Band. Our visual artists won two District Creative Excellence Grand Prize Awards and a variety of other prizes. Three Dreher artists were winners in the SC Dialogue Foundation's Art and Essay Contest and two were awarded trips to Turkey. Other highlights included Dancing with the Teachers, our band's Disney and SC Philharmonic performances, and community performances by our show choir and dance team. Our over eighty clubs and activities included award-winning Student Council, FBLA, math team, Key Club, NHS, NJROTC drill and academic teams, Robotics and Environmental/Recycling club. Ten students received athletic scholarships. The Blue Crew celebrated a boys' basketball region championship, two Gatorade and region players of the year, three State wrestling qualifiers, and the second State Championship in girls' basketball in three years. We are proud of our students and honored to serve our communities.
